

Standard books at about 1/4 of their real worth

The second shipment goes on sale tomorrow morning

This Book Sale has been a great success—the greatest of its kind ever held in Topeka. When you examine these genuine de Luxe editions and compare them with any sets ever offered you by book agents or stores, you will understand why the first shipment was practically sold out in two days.

Early in the year, George Gebbie & Co., of Philadelphia—publishers of the fine de Luxe editions of standard authors and classics; publishers of the well-known John D. Morris & Co., Gebbie & Co., the Chesterfield Society and the Davos Press editions which sell only through agents on the subscription plan at highest prices—failed for over half a million dollars. The failure shook the book trade! It threw hundreds of volumes on the market for whatever price they would bring.

They are Books, which, from a literary standpoint, represent the world's best authors and which, from a mechanical standpoint, represent the art and science of the printer's craft. Included are the world's greatest philosophers, historians, dramatists, poets and masters of romane and fiction.

This is a sale which will appeal to lovers of fine books. For these are not the cheap editions that are read once and cast aside, but they are Books which form the cornerstone of fine libraries. They are strictly de Luxe editions. The editions men of letters, scholars and those who appreciate good books—well printed and handsomely bound—delight in.

We learn that hundreds of these sets have been sold right here in Topeka, through the subscription plan, at $25.00, $35.00, $49.00, $60.00, $75.00, $90.00 and even $130.00. We offer them here at $6.50, $7.50, $11.25, $15.48, $18.00, $22.50, and $30.00.

One case—to illustrate: We know a man who bought a $35.00 set of Burns for $25.00 and considered it a good bargain. The first day of this sale, he bought identically the same set—same binding, same grade of paper, and same printing—for $9.18.

Do you think you can afford to miss such an opportunity as this?—the booklover's chance of a life time! Buy, while you may, the set of Shakespeare you want to complete the library. Buy the Stevenson, the Lamb, the Kipling, the Balzac, the Hawthorne or the Longfellow you have always wanted.

Be here tomorrow morning when this second shipment goes on sale. Buy the works of the world's greatest authors at about one-fourth of the usual subscription price. It is a Book occasion, the like of which the most of us have never had to profit by before.

Dumas

Alexandre Dumas is declared by countless enthusiastic admirers to be the prince of romancers. He carries along the reader breathless with interest, through plots and counterplots, ingenious intrigues, humorous situations, and never-ending adventures, all told with inimitable wit and dialogue.

Booklovers should not confound this new edition of Dumas with the numerous very incomplete sets of Dumas which omit many of his most brilliant novels. Probably the world will never see an absolutely complete set of Dumas for it is impossible to discern positively all of Dumas's own writings from those to which he allowed his name to be placed, although written by others in the "Dumas Syndicate of Authors."

The present new edition, however, contains all of the recognized masterpieces of Dumas, about 1200 pages, and therefore may be called practically complete—the most satisfactory set ever issued in English—the best translations.

Illustrated with numerous duotones in two colors, the type, paper and presswork are excellent.

Three-quarter leather binding, marbled sides, full gold backs, gold tops. Eighteen volumes.

Dickens

While Scott was writing his famous romances a boy named Dickens was working in a blacking warehouse, teaching himself shorthand, soon rising to be a reporter, and at 28 the most popular living writer in the world, a popularity which he maintained for more than thirty years, until his death from needless overwork.

Dickens' works are too widely known and loved to require comment.

Longfellow

New and exquisitely illustrated Edition of Longfellow's Poetical Works, including his translation of Dante's Divine Comedy. In ten beautiful volumes, nearly 800 pages.

The type is the only large type edition of Longfellow, and is carefully printed from new plates. The paper is a pure white wove of extra quality.

The illustrations include 81 beautiful full page reproductions in photogravure and duotone (two colors) from original paintings of distinguished modern artists.

The notes. In addition to the author's own notes there are numerous notes by the well-known critic and author, Mr. Charles Welsh.

It should be stated here that there is no absolutely complete set of Longfellow. The most important poem omitted from the present edition because of certain copyright restrictions is "The Hanging of the Crane," which, however, is sold in various cheap editions. On the other hand, this new edition contains, besides the original editorial matter referred to, a great deal of Longfellow's prose and poetical writings not obtainable in any other edition. For example, we have here for the first time in book form "The Bald Eagle" and "The Indian Summer," two brilliant stories written in the author's best style. Therefore it may be safely stated that this is by far the most satisfactory set of Longfellow ever published.

Shakespeare

Incomparable the best Shakespeare in the world. The first printing from new plates. Complete in 20 volumes. Size of volumes 8 1/2 x 5 1/2 in. This truly magnificent new edition of the works of Shakespeare is immeasurably superior to all others, was published by the well-known New York publishers, Bigelow, Smith & Co., who were engaged in its preparation for nearly three years, expending over $20,000 before the work was ready for the press.

During recent years in America, probably the three most extensively advertised and most widely sold editions of Shakespeare have been the Booklovers', the Morris and the Temple, in all of which the notes are at the end of each play. The Booklovers' and the Morris editions there are two sets of notes at the back which force the reader to turn to the back of the volume to hunt until the desired note is found, if it ever is found. Comment is unnecessary upon this vexatious impractical arrangement of notes.

In Bigelow, Smith & Co.'s new edition, through enormous expense of typesetting, the notes appear properly at the bottom of each page where they belong for the obvious convenience of the reader, and moreover every one of the thousands of notes bear the initials of the commentator so that one may know the exact authority for each explanatory statement. General readers as well as students will appreciate this commonsense aid in reading Shakespeare.

Most Completely Annotated Edition Ever Issued.

The notes and critical comments accompanying each play are by Dowden, Brandes, Lloyd, Hazlitt, Elton, Dyce, Coleridge, White, Mrs. Jameson and all the world's great Shakespearean scholars. A brief synopsis, written expressly for this edition, precedes each play. At the end of each play are study questions modeled upon a University Shakespearean course, affording the fullest help to the student or casual reader searching for information.

The illustrations of this 20-volume Edition of De Luxe include 170 full page reproductions in photogravure and mezzotint of celebrated Shakespearean paintings by great artists. These brilliant pictures are unrivaled for beauty and artistic merit. The type is a beautiful new Scotch face, large, Pica or 12 point size.
